

Come Ride with
BOYD & SILVA MARTIN
At the Fitch's Corner Memorial Weekend Eventing Clinic
May 28th, 29th, & 30th, 2011

ABOUT BOYD

Australian native Boyd Martin relocated to the United States in 2007 to pursue his dreams of international eventing competition. Now riding for the United States, Boyd was the top-finishing American individual and a member of the 4th-placed US Eventing Team at the 2010 Alltech World Equestrian Games in Lexington, Kentucky, and was voted The Chronicle of the Horse 2010 Eventing Horseman of the Year. Boyd has built a reputation as a confidence-building, imaginative clinician, challenging without over-facing riders and horses.

ABOUT SILVA

Silva has trained and shown with Olympian Oded Shimoni, and 2009 USEF Lifetime Achievement Award winner Jessica Ranshousen. She presently trains with Olympian Michael Barisone. In addition to her dressage students Silva's expertise has attracted the attention of the eventing crowd, including world-class competitors Phillip Dutton and Jan Byyny. She has a solid education in dressage training, and is happy to impart her knowledge to her students and their horses.

Schedule Options

Boyd: BN, N, T, P (Some competition experience required)

Saturday/Sunday: 1 ½ hrs. each day, 1st day flat/stadium, 2nd day X-C (ditch, steps, water complex, trakaner, sunken road, assorted portables), maximum 5 riders, $425

Monday: 1 ½ hrs., stadium/limited X-C (water complex, portables), maximum 4 riders, $225

Silva: Monday: As requested, from beginner to upper levels, privates, $150

This will be a unique opportunity! Ride Saturday/Sunday with Boyd, and return Monday for dressage with Silva. Or if you can only ship in one day, schedule Silva and Boyd both for Monday. Off-site stabling can be arranged.

Get to know Silva and Boyd at the gourmet luncheon served each day in the beautiful Fitch's gardens! Clinic participants and their guests are welcome.
