

Bill Cunningham

Mostly Melon

Two blue-ribbon events:
Mozart's birthday
and a country horse show.

11

12

13

14

15

16

July 30: The Spectators' Luncheon of the Fitch's Corner Horse Show in Millbrook, N.Y., benefited the volunteer Millbrook Fire Department Rescue Squad. The setting was right out of a Grandma Moses painting, green pastures dotted with white-trimmed red barns. Papier-mâché watermelon slices decorated the luncheon tent and became props for an impromptu melon dance to music by a Dixieland combo.

- 11. Over a rustic stone wall.
- 12. A melon birdhouse.
- 13. NICHOLAS STEVENS, on the ground. Behind him: ELISA LIPSKY-KARASZ, TARAJIA MORRELL and CARLO ROSSELL.
- 14. JANE ELLEBERG and CHOCOLATE CHIP.
- 15. FOGGIE, a neighbor's rooster.
- 16. CHRIS KELLOGG and his sister, FERNANDA KELLOGG, a founder of the show.
- 17. Clearing a brush fence.
- 18. DIANA KING in her '52 MG.
- 19. Get a horse!
- 20. The spectators.
- 21. ROBERT RUFINO.
- 22. FERNANDA GILLIGAN and JEFFREY CALDWELL.
- 23. EDWINA HUNT, left, and MARINA HUNT.
- 24. PEIGE KATZ and her daughter.
- 25. Cotton candy.
- 26. GAIL GEORGE, who bought the watermelons in Mexico.
- 27. HEIDI ROBERTS.
- 28. MICKI GILBERT.

24

17

18

25

19

20

26

21

22

23

27

28