What to wear to a western party? We asked our friend, Jane Hottensen who is co-chairing this year's legendary Blue Jean Ball at Fitch's Corner. With the theme of "Wild, Wild West" we shopped Ralph Lauren for these two great looks so you can take your pick. The white jeans and one-shoulder top is a more elegant take on the theme and could be your "go to" outfit for the rest of the season but who can resist a cowgirl in a short denim skirt and tie-dye boots! Either way, don't miss this festive evening of good ol' fun with a guest appearance by the Eric Hill Band. For tickets and information, please go to

FITCH'S CORNER HORSE TRIALS SPECTATOR LUNCHEON

SUNDAY, JULY 25, 2010

Our friends, Fernanda Kellogg and Fernanda Gilligan have created the most wonderful weekend in Millbrook, New York for lovers of the countryside and all of its glorious pursuits. Sponsored by Hunter Boot, Houlihan Lawrence and Barbara and Donald Tober, this year's event runs from Saturday, July 24 to Sunday, July 25 and includes exciting horse trials and non-stop food, shopping and fun. For the Horse Trials Spectator Luncheon, we love our white eyelet dresses, so evocative of the graceful pace of summer's past. To complete the look, stop by Fitch's Market and pick up a pair of Stubbs and Wootton espadrilles or slides. The ladies of the Mad Hatters, Diana Niles King and Belle McIntyre will be delighted to help you find the perfect hat from their divine and whimsical creations.
