

HAMMERTOWN love where you live

STORES LIFESTYLE BLOG SHOP ONLINE FURNISHINGS CHOICES

« Back to Events

Fitch's Corner Horse Trials Weekend

Start: July 24, 2010

Venue: Fitch's Corner

End: July 25, 2010

Phone: 845-677-3271

Address: Shunpike and Mabbettsville Road,
iCal Import Millbrook, 12545

FITCH'S CORNER HORSE TRIALS WEEKEND JULY 24 & 25

The weekend activities on July 24 & 25 are centered on the Horse Trials at the classically beautiful Fitch's Corner farm in Millbrook, NY.

Core to the horse competition are the three phases consisting of dressage, cross country jumping through rolling fields and stadium jumping in an arena. 250 horses from the Northeast will compete over the two days for the coveted Tiffany & Co. trophies and ribbons. Spectators can view all three phases on both days commencing at 8:00am through 5:00pm

FITCH'S CORNER HORSE TRIALS WEEKEND

JULY 24 & 25

The weekend activities on July 24 & 25 are centered on the Horse Trials at the classically beautiful Fitch's Corner farm in Millbrook, NY.

Core to the horse competition are the three phases consisting of dressage, cross country jumping through rolling fields and stadium jumping in an arena. 250 horses from the Northeast will compete over the two days for the coveted Tiffany & Co. trophies and ribbons. Spectators can view all three phases on both days commencing at 8:00am through 5:00pm with free admission. The weekend is sponsored by Houlihan Lawrence Real Estate, Hunter Boot and Fresh Gourmet.

In addition to the horses in action will be fantastic shopping at Fitch's Market. Over 45 boutiques under the big Fitch's Market tent will present fashions, accessories, hats, jewelry, art and antiques and gifts for home and horse. Hunter Boot will have their new fall line as well as their fashionable and colorful Wellies, visit Bella Tu which will debut their collection of stylish tunics and silk pants for chic entertaining, Stubbs & Wooten, a favorite shop for fancy footwear suitable for resort and dinners at home, Robert Redd will present their quintessential men's and boys polo shirts that gentleman adore in every color, Pomegranate Seeds hails from Washington DC with an array of unique and stylish gifts for home. Stable Cloths is the source for custom made hacking jackets and not to be missed are the luncheon hats from the Madder Hatters. In the new section, Fitch's Equine Village, equestriennes will find fine French made saddles from Devoucoux and can order their own custom from the Madder Hatters. In the new section, Fitch's Equine Village, equestriennes will find fine French made saddles from Devoucoux and can order their own custom designed course of jumps from ETB Jumps. From horse and hound to the fashionable county chic there is plenty of shopping for all.

The Spectator Luncheon will benefit the Millbrook Rescue Squad, the volunteer emergency service that covers the largest area in Dutchess County. This year's Celebrity Chef Job Yacubian has created a luncheon featuring produce from local farms and prepared by The Farmer's Wife. For luncheon tickets visit www.fitchscorner.com.

Spectators will also enjoy the Collector Cars on display with "hoods up" from noon on Sunday and the Awards Presentations following the Open Preliminary Jumping in the Stadium Arena. The 2010 Fitch's Corner Award will be presented to the Thoroughbred Retirement Fund for their work in saving and re-training the Thoroughbred race horse.

The Fitch's Corner Horse Trials weekend is located at the intersection of the Shunpike and N. Mabbettsville Road. Admission is free.

For information visit www.fitchscorner.com

Contact:

Fernanda Kellogg

845-677-3271